Public transport can be reached on foot within just a few minutes. In addition, supermarkets, educational institutions and various service providers can be found in the immediate vicinity.

Description

For sale is an unoccupied 1-room freehold apartment which, on approximately 38 m², boasts a well-designed floor plan. In addition to the hallway, the property comprises a living area with a partitionable sleeping alcove, an interior bathroom with shower and WC, as well as a cosy kitchen with a window. The living room also features a small, semi-circular bay window that reflects the flair of the building's late-19th-century architectural style.

The apartment building was constructed around 1900 and was comprehensively renovated between 1994 and 1996. The apartment is located on the 1st floor.

The service charge currently amounts to 147 euros.
